Member for Wetaskiwin Gives Address in House

H. J. Montgomery, M.L.A., delivered a brilliant speech in the Legislature on Monday, during the debate on the address from the throne, of which the following is a part. "The balance will appear next week."

I would like to join with those who have spoken in paying a tribute to the memory of the late member for Red Deer and the esteemed public servants who have passed on.

Mr. Smith could well have said with the apostle Paul: "I have fought a good fight. I have finished my course. I have kept the faith."

Of the others cut down in the prime of life with many years of usefulness before them, we are reminded that "Time like an ever rolling stream bears all its sons away." Their places will be most difficult to fill.

We welcome Mr. Payne, the new member for Red Deer, who brings to this Legislature a wealth of knowledge and experience that will be most valuable to us during these trying times.

I am glad to see the Honorable Member for Lacombe, Mrs. Parby, in her seat at this session. We sometimes need the wisdom and soothing influence of a lady of refinement and culture as exemplified in the Honorable Member.

I regret very much to note the absence of my old friend the Minister of Agriculture and Health. A session of the Legislature without him loses a great deal of its interest and piquancy, and I sincerely hope he may soon be with us again.

I have been impressed with the splendid sentiments expressed by the different speakers on this debate. Much time, energy and study have been given to the preparation of the different addresses and although we may not agree with some of the thoughts expressed, the discussion has been of a very high order indeed.

I also wish to compliment the Premier for taking his proper turn in the debate by following Constitutional practice of speaking after the Leaders of the various Parties and not ignore this assembly by his silence as was the case last year.

Most interesting was the address of the Honorable Member for Hand Hills and his description of the conditions in that country. Nature intended that this should be a grazing country and when man defied nature and tried to turn it into a farming community, there could be only one result and the sooner it reverts to a stock country the better for all concerned. There are some sad aspects to the situation. Wasted years of effort, communities and districts broken up, investments wiped out and the country depopulated. At the next redistribution when the number of seats are being reduced, Hand Hills may be eliminated and one of the most popular members of this House sacrificed on the altar of Redistribution.

Now, Mr. Speaker, the Premier appears to be peeved because the debate is still continuing. He points to the Dominion Parliament and the Legislature in Saskatchewan, where the debate in both cases only lasted a couple of days, as examples that should be followed. I do not agree with this contention. I believe all should take part in the debate that feel disposed to do so. No session of the Legislature is shortened by a limited or throttled debate on the Address. Discussions will only be prolonged at other times throughout the Session. It is better to get as much as possible off the minds of the members at the beginning and get it over. This debate is also the clearing house of ideas and suggestions and if any are worthy of adoption by the Government they must be given consideration early in the Session.

Now Mr. Speaker, we are facing a serious situation with falling revenues and a tremendous debt. Our credit is exhausted and we must now pay as we go. This means greatly reduced expenditures and probably higher taxation.

This Government has had plenty of warning as to where we were drifting. At every Session, times without number, the danger of the mounting debt and greatly increased expenditure was emphasized on this side of the House.

Their own Premier, Honorable Mr. Greenfield, delivering his first budget speech on March 13th, 1922, uttered a warning that should have been heeded.

He said: "We have reached the stage where we must mark time in the trend of over expansion that has overtaken by a considerable margin the limit of our sources of revenue."

"The time has arrived when we cannot view with complacency a growing debt while our population and the resultant limitations of our taxing ability remains more or less stationary."

"A fair beginning can be made by a ruthless cutting down of every unnecessary expenditure, elimination of waste and rejection of demands for new services."

"The next step will be to postpone further claims on the public purse until conditions warrant, without burdening the taxpayer. We must be disregarded but the Government paid no heed but continued its ruthless expenditures, lavish borrowings and indiscriminate guarantees, until to day we cannot borrow One Dollar."

The Government must assume responsibility for our financial position. Had our advice been taken last year the situation could more easily have been met now. It is our intention however, to assist the Government in every way possible to weather the storm and to bring the Provincial ship safely through the dangers and difficulties, many of which were brought about by the mismanagement, extravagance and incompetence of the present Government.

It is the duty and function of an opposition to be critical. To point out where mistakes have been made and where others can be avoided. Many thousands of dollars have been sent to the people of Alberta by constructive and sound criticism as indulged in on this side of the House.

(Hon. Headley, Interview) Edmonton Journal, March 31, 1931: "Hon. George Headley, and H. A. Craig Minister and Deputy Minister of Agriculture are attending the Calgary Spring Show on Tuesday. They are the only representatives of the Department taking part in the Southern event, other officials who usually are among those present, in an advisory or expert capacity, not attending this year as an economy measure. Objection having been taken in the Legislature, to Government officials doing overmuch travelling, the Department of Agriculture is starting in at once to put the criticism into effect."

We will support the Government in every measure we believe will help the Province regain its former prestige in the financial world and restore the proud position it once held. The Honorable Member for Edmonton, Mr. Howson, declared that this Government could caucus times without number, but it was the financial interest that dictated the policy of the Government.

The Premier would not admit this, but it remained for that stalwart supporter of the Administration, the Honorable Member for Innisfail, to prove to us that Mr. Howson was absolutely right, and he clinched his argument in the following memorable words: "Governments do not govern any more and that includes Alberta. The money kings are enthroned in the saddle. They demand their full interest and the Government signs on the dotted line."

Not only do we find ourselves in the power of the financial interests who dictate our policies to us, but we are also in the humiliating position of having to apply to the Dominion Government for financial assistance. They too will become our dictators, for whoever pays the orchestra names the tune. This probably accounts for the right about face on the part of this Government regarding its Police Policy, for the first intimation of any kind that a change was contemplated, came from Ottawa.

Therefore Mr. Speaker, with two dictators, what is the need of having a Government and Legislature? Just think of the tremendous saving to the Province if the salaries and indemnities of Cabinet Ministers and Members of the Legislature were cut out entirely as compared with the small reduction of 10% now proposed. What is the lesson we may learn from this depression and the position in which we find this Province, The

Weddings

WESTENDORF-SCHNECK

A quiet and pretty wedding was solemnized at the Swedish Lutheran Church, Wetaskiwin, on Saturday, February 6th, when Hilda Schnecko of Edmonton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Schnecko of Wetaskiwin, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Charles William Bernhard Westendorf, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Westendorf of Wetaskiwin district. Rev. H. G. H. Klingbeil, pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church, officiated.

The bride was charming in a gown of peach tulle and net, with shoes to match. She carried a bouquet of pink and white roses. She was attended by Miss Beth Ochs of Edmonton, who wore a mauve satin dress and carried a bouquet of carnations. The groom was supported by his brother, Herbert, of Mayerthorpe.

After the ceremony, the wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents, to which a large number of guests sat down. The young couple were the recipients of a number of useful and beautiful gifts. They left on a short honeymoon trip, and on their return will make their home on the groom's farm eleven miles west of Wetaskiwin. Their many friends wish them a long and happy married life.

MALMAS-ZOHNER

On Tuesday, February 16th, the nuptials of Peter Malmas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Malmas, north of Wetaskiwin, and Augusta Zohner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Zohner, were celebrated at the United Church Mans by Rev. A. R. Schrag. The young couple are favorably known in Wetaskiwin, and were supported by immediate relatives in a quiet wedding. They will take up their residence in Wetaskiwin.

BROWNLEE FAVORS CANTEN INQUIRY

Edmonton, Feb. 12.—Eighting back at his critics, Premier Brownlee, declared in the legislature Thursday afternoon that the government was willing to have its responsibility in regard to handling of the canten funds investigated by a joint committee of the House and Senate. He alleged that some $75,000 of the canten funds allocated to this province have disappeared, and W. R. Howson, Liberal M.L.A., had criticized the government severely over its responsibility in the administration of the funds.

Premier Brownlee stated that representations had been made to the government by the Canadian Legion representing the returned men, to have the fund re-established through taking over securities which had depreciated and hold these until normal values returned. The government's reply was that this could not be considered until the legislature had an opportunity to investigate the responsibility of the government. All correspondence between the provincial and Dominion governments with regard to the fund would be made available to the House, said the premier.

LIBRARY NOTES

Among interesting books of outdoor life are the following by Charles G. Roberts: "The Ledger on Baldface." This book is full of fascinating stories of birds and animals, which breathe of the open air, rough outlands and mountainous places, and are told with a power of subtle knowledge of wild creatures which have earned Major Roberts such popularity as a writer of animal stories.

Other books describing the wild life of the Canadian forests, by the same author are the "Backwoodsman," "Neighbors Unknown," "More Kindred of the Wild," and "The Secret Trails."

There are also several splendid splendid dog stories by different authors, such as "Scottie" by M. Benson Walker, and "Greyfriars Bobby" by Eleanor Atkinson.

Two of the most interesting books in the library are "The Story of Philosophy" by Will Durant, and Arthur Mee's "Book of Everlasting Things." When you want a good book to read come to your public library, you will be welcome.

SAVED FROM THE LUSITANIA

Memories of the sinking of the Lusitania were awakened with lively interest by Mr. Eric Williams in his lecture "Saved," which was given at the United Church on Monday night, under the auspices of the choir. Mr. Williams was one of four out of the band of Welsh singers who have been touring the United States and were bound for home on this most wonderful and presumably unsinkable ship. The war had been going on for about nine months when a submarine torpedo struck the Lusitania amidships and she sank in 18 minutes. Her crew had on board 115 United States citizens who perished, unjustly, through this act was a decisive event that led to the United States entering the Great War as one of the Allied Powers. Without playing up unduly the sad and gruesome scenes, Mr. Williams made his audience realize something of the weird and unhappy and tragic passions that seethed in the souls of passengers and crew. His quiet, melodious voice used with such simplicity and fluency in recital made his hearers shudder as well as listen to an informative story wrung from the heart of one who had been saved.

Mr. Eric Williams possesses a pleasing baritone and of good compass. His selections were fitly chosen so as to interest his audience as well as to display his range. His accompanist was Mrs. Condie, and she was sincerely complimented by the singer. Mrs. Condie and Mr. Touche gave two violin duets, one as an encore, with happy acceptance. They were accompanied by Mrs. Atkinson. One thing to a conflict, of other entertainments, the audience was not as large as might have been expected, but doubtless if Mr. Williams were to return he would be greeted with a capacity house.

ANOTHER FEATURE STARTS THIS WEEK IN THE TIMES

We have been very fortunate in arranging for another feature which will continue during the next three or four months in The Times, in that we have made exclusive arrangements to publish weekly articles on "Gardening," which will be prepared by one of the outstanding writers in Canada, who has had many years of practical gardening experience. We would suggest that these articles be read very carefully and that an increased effort be made by the gardeners of Wetaskiwin and community to procure better results from their lawns. The first letter of the series appears in this week's issue.

The quarterly meeting of the Lacombe Presbytery of the United Church of Canada was held in Ponoka on Tuesday, February 9th. All the pastoral charges in the Presbytery were represented by the local clergyman and lay representatives. Three sessions were held during the day, all of them centering around the theme "The Kingdom of God."

The morning session opened with a devotional service led by Rev. T. H. Davies. Rev. R. B. Layton delivered the address. The Moderator, Rev. W. J. Moores, constituted Presbytery with prayer after which the business of the day was taken up. The missionary and maintenance report was given showing a decided increase since the previous year. Well over $200.00 was sent in for the general work of the church. Reports were given by the pension fund committee. A discussion followed regarding the Layman's Movement within the Presbytery. Mr. G. E. Bowden was elected chairman of this movement.

The afternoon session was opened by a devotional service led by Rev. H. G. Smith. This was followed by an inspiring address by the superintendent of Home Missions of Alberta, Rev. Dr. Thomas Powell. These inspiring statistics were given: At December, 1930, the United Church of Canada has over 3000 pastoral charges and over 7500 preaching places. It assumes responsibility for over one-sixth of the population of Canada. During 1930 the church was increased by 26,300 persons who were admitted by profession of faith. A total of over $3,700,000 was raised for missionary work, while over $16,420,000 was raised for all purposes. In Alberta there are over 900 preaching places and over 46,000 are enrolled in the Sunday schools of this province.

Reports were given from the Religion, Education, Statistics and Home Mission Committees. There followed the resignation of Rev. W. J. Moores from the pastoral charge of Bentley. This was accepted with regret, and the Rev. W. J. Moores was tendered Mr. Moores for his splendid services to his pastoral charge and to the Presbytery.

Dinner and supper were tastefully served by the talent group of the Ladies' Aid of our local church. A splendid social time was enjoyed by all the delegates and a vote of thanks was tendered the ladies.

The evening session was an open session. A few from Ponoka attended. The meeting was opened by a devotional service led by Rev. W. J. Moores. The address was given by Rev. A. R. Schrag of Wetaskiwin.

He spoke on the subject of the availability of God's guidance and help for our personal needs. We have "A supply sufficient for all our needs of the spirit." As to the economic, political and social relationship between the church and of our difficulties than to take the ethics of Christ at their face value, and have such trust in their truth and effectiveness that we think our way through with a hopeful outlook.

The benediction closed a very splendid meeting—Ponoka Herald.

POPULAR CITIZEN TO TAKE UP RESIDENCE AT LETHBRIDGE

The host of friends of Rev. P. C. Wade, who has been the popular rector of the Anglican churches in Wetaskiwin and Ponoka for about four years, regret to learn that he expects to leave about the end of March to take up his duties as rector of St. Augustine's Anglican Church at Lethbridge. Negotiations have been going on for some time and arrangements were not completed until a few days ago. During Mr. Wade's sojourn here, he has taken a very active interest in all public matters and has been a great booster for the community. He has been president of the Community Welfare League, and has been very active in alleviating suffering both in the city and community; and in addition to his many other duties, he has been the efficient Scout Leader of the different troops of the Scouts and Cubs. It is expected that Mr. Wade will conduct his farwell service here on March 27th. His call to conduct the work at Lethbridge is a well-merited promotion, and although his many friends will regret his departure, all join in wishing Rev. and Mrs. Wade every success in their new sphere of activity.

Alberta Legislative Assembly

(Interesting news letter from our Correspondent in the Press
Gallery, Parliament Buildings.)

Right from the opening day of the Alberta Legislature the Liberal benches gave every indication that this is to be a fighting session. It is already evident that Mr. Webster and his followers will battle every inch of ground to prevent any additional taxation being levied on the shoulders of what Mr. Howson described as an "already overburdened people."

The chief attacks on the government came from W. R. Howson, Liberal, and D. M. Duggan, Conservative. Even Fred J. White, Labor, Calgary, took them to task for their failure to deal with the unemployed problem in an up-to-date fashion.

Mr. Howson began his assault after G. A. Forster, U.F.A., Hand Hills, in moving the adoption of the speech from the throne, had taken taken a verbal trip around the world, putting into every conceivable political harbor, but failing to come to anchor at any particular spot.

He was followed by Donald Macleod, U.F.A., Stony Plain, who seconded the motion. In his speech he went far off the beaten track of government policy, delivering a scathing attack on what he called the present "profit pyramiding system."

Then Mr. Howson flung down the gauntlet of battle in a vigorous fighting speech. With telling force he banged home his arguments and held the attention of the house from start to finish. He charged the government with wanton extravagance and hopeless incompetence at a time when they knew that economy should have been the watchword. He accused them of alighting any suggestions that came from the Opposition only to adopt them when they were peddled by the government.

He accused them of appointing a man to negotiate a financial agreement for the province when the work should have been done by the provincial treasurer or his deputy. The government, he declared, had never made a success of any undertaking with which he had been connected.

One after the other he brought out his points with telling effect while the Liberal benches applauded. He concluded by moving his amendment, which was to all intents and purposes a vote of censure.

The vote was taken and it was defeated by 37 to 19. The government benches were obviously surprised when they saw the Conservatives and Independents rise to support Mr. Howson's amendment.

Having been taken by surprise the government put up their pinch hitter Hon. Perren Baker, minister of Education, to reply. This he did in a long rambling speech, devoted for the most part to a defence of the government's Education policy.

He accused Mr. Howson of making wild statements and said his accusations were not supported by facts. This was not good politics he declared. He proceeded to give what he called examples of Mr. Howson's inaccuracies and said that the speaker would have more to say at a later date.

The following day the Conservatives opened fire on the government. Mr. Duggan in a well delivered speech, reviewed the shortcomings of the ministry in no uncertain fashion. He too accused them of extravagance. He claimed that any government should have been foresighted enough to have seen the crisis that was approaching. They had been warned time after time, he said, from the Opposition benches. But they had ignored any suggestions from that side of the house.

Now in their eagerness to effect economies they were stealing the thunder of the Opposition. The Conservatives had suggested the policing of the province by the R.C.M.P. but were negative. Now the government was doing that very thing. Had they adopted the suggestion when first mooted the province would by now have saved nearly a million dollars.

He concluded by moving his vote of want of confidence. This was in turn defeated. Premier Brownlee suggested the amendment was out of order as it was practically the same thing moved by Mr. Howson the day before. The Speaker, however, negatived Mr. Brownlee's suggestion.

Mr. Duggan was followed by Fred J. White, Labor, Calgary, who militated against the government for their failure to deal with the unemployment problem in an up-to-date manner. He suggested it was time for the government to go more and more into business as a means of raising revenue and instancing the insurance business and the power projects as a means to that end.

In a two hour speech Premier Brownlee electrified the house with his fluency. He made no attempt to go into detail with regard to the charges of the opposition contenting himself with a blanket denial of their allegations. He contended that no government could have foreseen the seriousness that had arisen throughout the world. For what course his administration had taken he had no apologies to make and no alibi to offer.

He suggested that the Prime Minister of Canada should call a conference of the Dominion in order to devise some new scheme of unemployment relief, particularly as it affected single men.

He regarded the continuance of the five cent wheat bonus and thought it probable that it might be necessary to bonus the export of hogs and bacon. He denied responsibility of the government in the administration of fifteen funds and made an appeal to the mortgage companies for a more generous treatment of their debtors.

Mr. Brownlee made it quite clear that as far as he was concerned there would be no moratorium in Alberta. Whatever the government intended with regard to a provincial income tax would be made clear when the budget was brought down.

The Prime Minister suggested another conference in order to devise an improved scheme of rural credits and concluded with the hope that when the house next met it would be under happier auspices.

BORN CRIMINALS

(By Dr. H. E. Smith, University of Alberta)

There aren't any! says Dr. W. A. Healy in substance, after making a careful examination of the life histories of one thousand delinquents who came as repeated offenders before the Juvenile Court in Chicago. Healy makes his statement in these words: "There is no such thing as an anthropological criminal type."

It criminals are not born such, what then are the factors which cause them to become criminals? Healy selected from the above-mentioned one thousand juvenile offenders, those on whom he had made complete history studies, full physical and full mental examinations, and attempted, in each case, to ascertain what was the main cause of the crime. There were eight hundred and twenty-three of such cases. He found that in four hundred and fifty-five of the total eight hundred and twenty-three the major cause of delinquency was in the mental make-up of the offender, either the mind was weak (feeble-mindedness) or was unbalanced (abnormality). These four hundred and fifty-five juveniles then were criminally because of mental abnormality which made it difficult for them to adjust themselves to the society in which they found themselves. One hundred and sixty-three of the juveniles were delinquent because of the defective home conditions in which they had been living. Alcoholism on the part of one or both parents was the most prevalent cause of these defective home environments. In fifty-eight of the cases, delinquency was attributed to defective or unsatisfied interests was the major cause of delinquency in sixteen cases. In only one case was it impossible to ascertain the causative factor.

It is noteworthy that in all, save the last mentioned case of delinquency, Dr. Healy was able to prescribe treatment of one type or another. The nature or the treatment varied greatly from institutional care in the case of some types of mental abnormalities to an enriching of the juvenile's interests in cases where the interests of the child was not being satisfied.

Dr. Healy does not attempt to estimate what it would cost the state to prevent or cure all crime. Nor does he suggest that such a thing would be possible in practice.

The significant fact is that criminalistic tendencies, like physical diseases, have definite causes and are amenable to the proper treatment. Society need not despair in the thought that a certain percentage of its members are born criminals—they are not.

IN A HUNDRED YEARS!

With a birth-rate of 46 per 1,000 and a death-rate of 11 per 1,000 the population of the world in 100 years, at its present rate of increase, will be 6,000,000,000. Economists agree the world can support only 2,000,000,000 of a population, or two and a half acres to the person.

CROW EXPERIMENTS PROVE INTERESTING

The experiments which have been conducted by Dr. Wm. Rowan of the Department of Zoology of the University of Alberta on the migratory instinct of crows have excited a wide interest not only in Canada and the United States, but in all parts of the world where men are searching for the hidden truths of nature.

Early in November 350 crows which Dr. Rowan had had under treatment for a period of two months, were taken by aeroplane and released at Hackett, Alberta.

After the release of the birds the co-operation of all citizens was sought in shooting them and returning them to the University. Since the date of release crows have been returned from widely separated points in Alberta and some from the United States and it is very gratifying that in the large majority of cases the different groups have acted exactly in the manner in which they were expected to act. Some birds have gone south, others have wandered around, some have remained stationary, and others have flown northwards.

The birds that were expected to fly north had their tails painted yellow and particular interest is attached to this group. So far 40 per cent of the yellow-tailed birds have been shot and returned, while many others have been reported as being seen, the latest report coming this week from Duvigneau.

The line of flight of the north-bound birds would take them in a line northwest from Hackett, through Alix and Ponoka and on towards Edson. Several birds were shot in the vicinity of Alix, but not a single bird has been reported west of the C. & E. Line. This is strange because wild crows are distributed all over Alberta and if careful observation had been made some of these might have been shot. To date sixteen wild crows have been shot and sent in. All of these were abnormal which accounts for their not migrating in the proper season. People in the districts west of Lacombe, Ponoka, Wetaskiwin and Buck Lake are particularly asked to keep an eye open for crows of any description and to shoot them and send them in to the University of Alberta.

Of the other than north-bound groups of crows practically 80 per cent in some cases have been shot and returned. This is a sufficiently high percentage on which to base definite conclusions.

Readers are reminded that there is still some prize money to be awarded and your continual co-operation with the University in this matter will be appreciated.

GAME PROTECTIVE BODIES MEET MON.-GEO. HOADLEY

Recommending the appointment of full-time, salaried game guardians for better enforcing provisions of the Game Act, representatives of the Alberta Fish and Game Association and the Northern Alberta Game and Fish Protective League met last week in Edmonton with Hon. George Hoadley, minister of agriculture.

The committee drew attention of the minister to a resolution passed at the annual convention of the Alberta Association in Calgary, Nov. 20, asking the government to consider the immediate formation of an advisory committee composed of administrative, scientific, sportsmen and legislative representatives in the province.

The minister's attention was also drawn to the following resolution passed at the convention: "That every person be required to have a license in his possession to hunt birds and big game excepting only farmers, who would be permitted to shoot game birds on their own land without a license." The committee recommended that a clause to this effect be printed in the new Game Act.

It was also recommended that a summary of the game regulations, including the bag limit for the year, be printed on the licenses, as had been the practice in other years, excepting 1931.

RAILWAYS WILL CONTINUE LOW WEEK-END TRIP FARES

Montreal, Feb. 15.—In response to public demand, low week-end round trip fares, which have been offered by the Canadian National, Canadian Pacific and other railway lines in the Dominion since last summer, will remain in force after February 29, the date originally set for their discontinuance.

In making this announcement, the Canadian Passenger Association draws attention to the privileges now in force and to the fact that extension is now to be made. Round trip tickets between any Canadian stations for any week-end are offered by the railways at the rate of one and a quarter times the regular single fare. These tickets are good going from Friday noon until Sunday noon and returning until Monday night.

The travelling public will thus be able to continue its week-end journeys, which have been so popular during the past year, and it is anticipated that the volume of traffic will be even greater as the spring develops. The popularity of the concession is already assured by the thousands who have availed themselves of it, and its extension will, without doubt, be very welcome.

SERVICE IN TIMES OF STRESS

The social significance of life insurance has possibly received insufficient attention in recent years while some of its other features have received unusual emphasis. If this tendency has been in greater evidence in periods of special prosperity, it is, perhaps, natural that the trying conditions of the past two years should cause people to realize the old primary values on which life insurance is based. During a time when all forms of business suffered severely and many succumbed, life insurance has withstood every strain, and has justified every claim. Not a single company on this continent has failed to meet every demand, even though these demands were unusually heavy. Within a decade and a half, life insurance has successfully survived the tests of a world war, of pestilence, and of unexampled depression.

Its steady, unobtrusive, but wonderfully helpful service to its policyholders is strikingly phrased in a reference by President T. B. Macaulay at the annual meeting of the Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada held recently. He pointed out that the Sun Life Company last year paid out $3,000,000 to policyholders and beneficiaries, and that since organization it has paid out nearly $600,000,000. With assets of $624,000,000 and total assurances in force of over $3,000,000,000 the Sun Life Company continues to set new records in the life insurance field.

Impure Blood In Her System Caused Boils

For the past 32 years MANUFACTURED ONLY BY THE T. MILBURN CO., Limited Toronto, Ont.

Mrs. Wm. Howes, Fort Loring, Ont., writes:—"Owing to having impure blood in my system I was greatly troubled with boils on my face and neck."

I tried several different remedies, but they produced no effect. A friend told me about Burdock Blood Bitters saying she had used it, with wonderful results, for a similar trouble, and advised me to give it a trial, and after taking two bottles my blood was purified; the boils disappeared and I have never been troubled with them since.

I know of nothing so splendid as B.B.B. for a blood purifier."

"Fresh from the Gardens"

Weekly Garden Letter

(Written for The Times by a practical gardener of long experience).

You are probably one of the ten million Canadians who have grown a bit tired of hearing that prosperity is just around the corner and so we will start off with a little surer prediction and say the same thing about Spring. Of this no person can feel any reasonable doubt. It may be a trifle late this time because it has been arriving rather ahead of schedule in most parts of the country in recent years, but along about March, or April or, at worst, May, we will wake up some morning and find the birds back from the South and the grass showing that shade of green which no artist has ever been really able to reproduce. The same urge which drove Cain, or was it Abel, into the farming business and later affected Hebert, the Parisian drugist who came out with Champlain, in a similar manner will stir in our veins and it will not be long before we shall forth, seed catalogue in one hand and a spade in the other. Last year's mistakes will be turned into valuable experiences and we will add to our list of varieties. In addition to the wholesome satisfaction which man can only secure when working with Mother Nature we will reap the very substantial advantage of materially lowering our cost of living and at the same time raising the standard.

Plans
Some sort of a plan is advisable for with it we can save time and also turn out a much better job. If we have a big proposition on hand, such as laying out grounds for the first time around a new house, then we had better draw this roughly to scale, and before we actually start to plant, particularly shrubs, trees, vines grass and other permanent material we should try to picture the mature results. A Spirea or any of the herbaceous perennials are very small affairs indeed when they arrive from the store, but in a few years they will take up a great deal more room. To avoid a crowded appearance later on, allow plenty of space now and, if necessary, fill in for the first season or two with showy annuals. Our general plan for lay-outs of this kind and also annual flowers, should be informal, using clumps of the same variety and color rather than straight rows. In the foreground we will have our lawn, and further back flower beds with small plants, such as the spring bulbs, Alysium, Lobelia or Nasturtiums in front, larger flowers generally towards the rear, and finally shrubs and perhaps a tree or two. Walls may be partially screened with climbing plants such as Boston Ivy, Virginia Creeper, or Roses. For verandahs, most people prefer those broad-leaved climbers such as the Dutchman's Pipe, although here again a climbing rose or a Clematis is attractive. We can of course use annuals for this work, especially if we do not own the property or if it is now and then we want to make a fair show the first year. You will find in your seed catalogue an ample list of bush annuals, which resemble permanent shrubs, and also quick-growing climbers like the Scarlet Runner Bean or cultivated Hops that will give good results. In trees, we must be careful to avoid those kinds which send out objectionable roots near the surface or which provide excessive shade as it is difficult to garden or develop a lawn around them. In planning our vegetable garden we will, of course, be very formal and use straight rows, preferably running north and south. If we have a tractor or a horse at our disposal and plenty of land the rows will have to be not less than thirty inches apart, but if our garden is on a smaller scale we can cut this distance at least in two for those vegetables like beets, spinach and beans, which are narrow and do not sprawl over the ground. Tomatoes, corn and members of the melon family, on the other hand, should have a yard between rows. To save space we can alternate quick maturing things like radish, lettuce, spinach, with longer season or later planted vegetables, followed by late corn, turnips, celery and a few other things which are not so quick growing. The essential group is consumed. The essential point to remember in growing crisp, tender vegetables is quick growth. A setback, usually results in toughness, hence we should push things along by frequent cultivation and an occasional application of good garden fertilizer. It is also a good thing to make several sowings about ten days apart of each vegetable in order to lengthen the season.

EVERY WOMAN faces this question

"How do I look to other people?" If you have a lovely skin, attractive eyes, and plenty of enthusiasm, you need not worry.

So many women, though, risk their beauty by neglect of constipation. It often causes loss of pep, sallow skins, dull eyes, pimples. Yet constipation can be overcome by eating Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. This cereal provides "bulk" to exercise the intestines, and Vitamin B which tones the intestinal tract. ALL-BRAN also supplies iron for the blood.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is much like that of lettuce. Special cooking processes make it finer, more palatable. It is not habit-forming. Surely this is safer than abusing the system with pills and drugs—so often habit-forming.

Two tablespoons daily will correct most types of constipation.

If your intestinal trouble is not relieved this way, see your doctor.

him. "Was the safe blown open, Nan?"

"The wind jested with her black curls as she nodded. 'Yes. Mr. Gordon had extra money in there, too, that no one knew about. Here he comes now with the police.'"

"Stay here in the bandstand while I talk to them. I'll come for you shortly. Fold your cape around you." He hurried to his employer.

"Every one in the factory must have finger prints taken in the morning. Don. There are traces on the safe. I'll be ruined if the thief isn't caught—old Sims paid his debt today."

"Oh. Surely not in currency as he did last time."

"He did. His payment was $30,000 in big bills. I could weather the loss of the pay roll; not this, though. I told Harold to take it to the bank, but he forgot."

"Don. Harold was surprised that you brought me tonight," commented Nan, after babbling of her partners. "He understood you intended to go to the office to work on the ledger."

"I had I might have been able to save that money."

"Harold found your 'handkerchief' beside the safe, the one I embroidered for you with 'Don' on it. Do you think he'd suspect you? He acted awfully odd, kept looking over his shoulder and shaking his head. He told me to ask you if he could take me home as it was getting so cold."

Don's forehead became wet with horror. Was Harold implicated and trying to push him into the coil of suspicion?

"So nice of Mr. Graham to give those puppet dolls for prizes. I won one, Don. She held up a limp, long-legged doll. "I found another one, too, when I was waiting for you in the bandstand. Saw the red skirt sticking up by the railing. I'm going to ask Mr. Graham if I may give it to that little Daisy King—she adores dolls."

A car slid to a stop beside them. "I'm sorry, Don. I wouldn't have believed it, but—well, you'll have to go with these officers," mumbled Mr. Graham.

"Not the paragon you believed," laughed Harold. "I'll be getting back home."

"This doll was hidden in the bandstand, Mr. Graham. May I take it for—?" She paused, for Harold had leaped forward and seized her arm.

"That? Why, that is my doll!" he yelled.

"Have you lost your senses, Harold?" cried his uncle, after an amazed silence. "Here, come back here, instantly!"

Harold, after an unsuccessful grab for the doll had jumped into the car and was speeding down the lake road.

"Acts kinda looney," observed the sergeant.

THE YEAR'S BUSINESS REVIEWED

"... I think you will agree with me that for a year such as that through which we have just passed the showing is a remarkably fine one.

"New assurances of over $27,000,000, and a total in force exceeding $3,000,000,000, are figures so great as to need no emphasis.

"The distribution of our new business is interesting. Canada contributed $101,000,000, United States $291,000,000, Great Britain $50,000,000, and the rest of the world $85,000,000.

"Our mortality experience has been even more favorable than that of last year, the claims being but 34.3 per cent. of the expected, against 37.6 per cent. in 1930.

"Since business was commenced in 1871 we have paid out in benefits $594,000,000. Last year alone our payments were $93,000,000, an amount exceeding the total assurance written in 1922. We may well rejoice over the magnitude and importance of the social service which the Company is performing.

"During the past year life assurance has been tested as perhaps never before, and it has withstood the trial triumphantly. So far as I am aware not one life company on the continent has had to close its doors, a wonderful record. In Canada we can claim with pride that even since Confederation not one Dominion licensed company has ever failed.

"It will be noticed that in addition to the surplus of $16,000,000 over all liabilities and capital stock, we have a contingency reserve of $4,700,000 to provide for possible shrinkage in mortgages and other real estate investments. Our reserves have been calculated on the same strong basis as last year. Although our investments payable in American currency greatly exceed our liabilities in that currency, we have treated both as on a par, taking no credit for the premium on American funds. Our liabilities under contracts in other currencies also are included at a total greater than required as the prevailing rates of exchange.

"Our holdings of stocks have been valued on the basis laid down by the Dominion Department of Insurance, which is practically the same as that adopted for all companies by the National Convention of Insurance Commissioners of the United States.

"In new investments we have favoured high grade bonds, the yield on which is now very attractive. Our purchases of Canadian Government bonds during the year amounted to $23,000,000.

"The profits paid or allotted to policyholders amounted to over $26,000,000, or over 20 per cent. of the total annual premium income.

"In the light of these figures, the report is indeed an excellent one.

"And what of the future? No one believes that the depression will last for ever. It is impossible to say just when the turn will come, but with the vast natural resources of this continent, and the brains, energy, and actual wealth of its people, business recovery is inevitable. When prosperity does return no company will share in its benefits in greater measure than our own."

Overnight Bedroom Sleeping Cars Popular

Please reserve bedroom on Canadian Pacific 11:39 p.m. train for Toronto, is a common call nowadays into the railway offices by the travelling public. The company reports a very heavy demand of late for this type of accommodation and this has necessitated operation of bedroom sleeping cars on the runs between Montreal and Quebec, Montreal and Toronto, Ottawa and Toronto, Toronto and Detroit, and Montreal and Detroit.

Privacy, comfort and the last word in convenience and luxury are features of this latest development in overnight travel by Canadian Pacific as expressed in these single and double bedroom cars and compartment cars, which represent the equivalent of the finest of hotel accommodations. They provide all the luxurious appointments of individual private rooms with a real bed that assures deep and refreshing sleep. Each room has toilet, lavatory, electric fan, overhead ventilator with exhaust fan, reading lamp and other conveniences, the whole being decorated in restful colors. In the double bedroom cars an overhead bed may be opened from the wall, if desired, affording additional facilities. Some further features of the sleeping cars may be enumerated, which make the hours of sleep so refreshingly delightful. Temperatures are controlled thermostatically throughout the train; roller bearings assure smoothness of motion, coil spring mattresses invite restful slumber; heavily padded carpeting harmonizes with interior arrangements, creating a general soothing effect. Berths are wide and long and unusually roomy, presented to travellers as a masterpiece of transportation luxury and comfort. It is the realization of all these refinements of art and efficiency of which travel equipment designers long have dreamed. From the inception of this new service it has won increasing favor among travellers who distinguish between good average service and perfection in travel. The word "moderne" has its fullest and most inclusive expression in these cars.

In the women's dressing rooms attached to the sleeping cars there is real comfort and satisfaction. The most fastidious woman will find facilities such as she would expect to see in a first-class hotel. Mirrored dressing table and other toilet accessories provide maximum accommodation without overcrowding. Here are vanity chairs conveniently placed, ample artificial and natural lights in softly colored shades, spotlessly white lavatories with hot and cold running water, specially adapted soap and a never-ending supply of clean linen. This affords the requisite pendant to refreshing sleep—perfect toilets.

The men are treated in like fashion. They too have commodious dressing rooms where they can refresh themselves not only for the purpose of making their toilets but also for an enjoyable smoke before retiring or after they have slept. Their room is brightly lighted, with lavatories of newest design and in decorations harmonizes with the general finish and furnishings.

ALLEGY PRICE TO CANADIAN USER TOO HIGH

Ottawa, Feb. 12.—The decision to have a parliamentary inquiry into the price of gasoline and an illuminating discussion on campaign funds were the high lights of Thursday in the House of Commons.

As indicating confidence in their capacity to justify the prices they charge, three of the largest companies have welcomed the inquiry. That such was made clear in the brief observations of the prime minister, who refrained from discussing the merits, but readily acquiesced in the projected investigation.

Western Liberal members have been complaining considerably about this matter in the last year or so, claiming that gasoline costs too much. On Thursday Dr. Donnelly of the Saskatchewan Liberal delegation made a formal motion for an inquiry. Figures were quoted quite extensively in their bearing upon production and consumption of gasoline in Canada and in American cities.

52 MUNICIPALITIES IN ALTA. TAKE UP TOWN PLANNING

No less than 52 municipalities in Alberta are now definitely interested in a program of development it was disclosed in the annual report of the town and rural planning advisory board of which H. L. Seymour is director, tabled in the legislature.

The report shows that there are now more than 1,000 municipalities in Canada and United States where zoning bylaws or ordinances are in effect and where residential, commercial and industrial districts are segregated.

Zoning bylaws have been prepared or are under consideration in five cities, 11 towns and including building provisions in one town, nine villages and two hamlets in Alberta. To date, 23 zoning bylaws have been introduced and of these 13 have been passed.

During the year hundreds of circulars were sent out by the board regarding advertising signs, gasoline stations and refreshment booths, with the result that several thousand signs have been removed. Only 30 licensed signs within a two mile zone of a city or town now remain in the whole province.

On main highways or highways under provincial control, 75 gasoline filling station licenses were granted last year.

GIRL FALLS 40 FT. FROM BRIDGE ON ICE AT TABER

Taber, Feb. 15.—Climbing over the parapet of the government steel bridge over the Old Man river, two miles north of Taber late Sunday afternoon to recover a comb lying on the cement top of the second pier, Florence Walker, aged 16, lost her balance and fell 40 feet to the ice on the river, suffering a broken left arm above the wrist and several lacerations to the pelvic bone. She was removed to Lethbridge hospital for X-ray examination.

(Miss Walker is a niece of J. H. Walker of Wetaskiwin.)

TEN COMMANDMENTS FOR LEAP YEAR MAIDS

A Kansas City judge has announced ten commandments to guide women seeking to take advantage of leap year.

They follow:

Don't pick a shiek.

Don't let a handsome face influence your better judgment.

Don't shy from the bashful because the bashful are shy.

Consider the man who considers his nickles.

Believe not the man with motor car has the only vehicle to happiness.

Remember, clothes may make the man and fill the clothes closet, but they don't fill the pantry.

Don't delay the proposal because he is old fashioned—he may be like your father.

Demand much character but be satisfied with a small part of the pay check.

Don't be finicky; you have faults yourself.

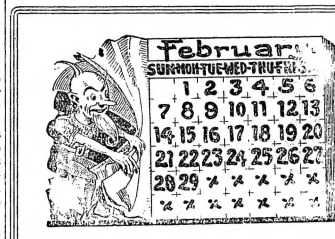

Let love be the only consideration; after all, nothing else counts.

BANKS ADVANCE $269,278 IN BINDER TWINE LOANS

The total value of binder twine loans advanced by the banks last fall, under government guarantees, was $269,278, it is disclosed in replies given in the house to questions of A. P. Mitchell, Liberal member for Leduc constituency.

At January 31 last, the sum of $261,673 had been repaid, leaving some $67,605 outstanding. There were 5,533 individual farmers who obtained twine under the government guarantee, while 4,028 have paid their indebtedness in full.

necessity to exercise economy and common sense in the management of our public affairs. When times are good, protect and conserve our Provincial credit and build up reserves to provide employment and fight adversity when the time comes.

Now the Government threatens that new demands are to be made on the taxpayers at a time when they are least able to bear the burden of taxation in order that the financial position of the Province may be re-established.

Several speakers during this debate, including the mover and seconder of the motion before us, have criticized our Currency and Banking system. The Member for Hand Hills tells us "Interest is the curse of Civilization"; the Member for Stony Plain wants to Nationalize Banks. Whatever that means.

We will all agree that under present conditions interest is too high. Why the Premier confined his appeal for a reduction of rates to the Mortgage Companies, I do not know.

There are others to whom he could appeal equally as well. Private Lenders, Insurance Companies, who loan immense sums, Implement Dealers, Wholesalers, Retailers and Banks. Even our Municipalities, by authority of this Legislature, impose impossible burdens on the delinquent taxpayer through interest and penalties of from 15 to 18 per cent. Except in cases of this kind we have as a Province, no control over interest rates.

All we can do to negotiate with the different financial interests or appeal to the Dominion Government to move in the matter. This might tend to restrict new loans but would give immediate relief to the man overburdened with debt. Until times improve borrowers might make an effort to pay four or five per cent when they cannot pay eight or ten per cent.

Those who purchased farms or erected buildings are not even getting 5% on their investment, so those investing in loans and mortgage should not receive preferential treatment. The fact that such immense sums are deposited in our Chartered Banks drawing only 3% goes to prove that those with money are willing to receive a low rate of interest.

Dealing with the Banks for a moment, I believe they are unjustly criticized for their financial policies. Rates of interest charged and high dividends paid. If they do not satisfy everyone, depositors need have no fear that their life savings will be wiped out through a Bank's failure. There are hundreds of thousands of ruined homes and broken lives in the States today from this cause. Our Canadian Banks first obligation is to their depositors. I have before me a copy of the "Monetary Times," which gives some interesting information. The figures are for October last. Savings Bank deposits, $1,462,000,000; loans to farmers, merchants, manufacturers and others, $1,141,000,000.

It is not the Bank's money but the depositors that they are loaning. They are handling the money in trust and it must be protected. We have been told that the banks are earning enormous profits and paying dividends up to 12 and 16 per cent. Bank stocks paying these high dividends are quoted around $200 and higher. An investor therefore buying Bank Stock and paying $200 for a share of $100 par value is not getting 6 to 8% return on his investment. These figures, compiled in a family for two, should be an incentive to those who now waver on the brink of matrimony. For even if two cannot live as cheaply as one, ten cents is not very much to spend for food for each meal. This being leap year, it was planned with this result and had every right to be. Even experts say that it is almost impossible to secure adequate nutrition on less than ten cents per person for each meal. This young housewife did it on exactly ten cents and six mills as an average.

GOVERNMENTS, MUNICIPALITIES, CORPORATIONS AND INDIVIDUALS INTO EXTREME DIFFICULTIES AND EVEN FINANCIAL RUIN AND WE WOULD BE ALL MUCH BETTER OFF TODAY IF CREDIT HAD BEEN HARDER TO OBTAIN.

Then we have the talk of Gloom, Depression and bankruptcy and taxation. We are an oppressed and downhearted people. Mr. Speaker, I believe propaganda of this kind has a most damming influence and helps to contribute largely to the present depression. Those with money are afraid to part with it and it is being hoarded instead of being put into circulation. I believe I am stating what is true when I say that in Alberta, at least from Calgary North, that deposits exceed the loans 2 to 1, and that of all the money on deposit in the same area two-thirds belongs to the farmers as against one-third to those living in urban centres.

Before leaving this subject, I want to say that in my opinion, nothing will help Canada and especially Western Canada as much as a lowering of the tariff walls throughout the world. International trade judiciously guided is the life-blood of any nation and we in Canada require markets for our products above all else. That this raising of tariffs has gone too far is borne out by a recent statement made by the president of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association who deprecates the tendency to throttle trade and intimates to the Dominion Government that a reduction in the tariff is advisable. There is some hope for us yet.

LONE RIDGE U.F.A.

Owing to the date conflicting with the Dairy Pool Convention, to which some of the debaters were delegates, the debate between Lone Ridge and Hillside was postponed. It will now take place at Lone Ridge hall on Monday, February 22nd, at 8 p.m. Short program, preceding debate. Lunch and an impromptu dance will follow. Nominal charge to cover expenses.

The subject "Reciprocity with the United States," is a very interesting one and everyone is urged to come and listen to the arguments advanced by both sides.

There will be one change in the Lone Ridge team, E. E. Sparks taking the place of T. S. Steedman.

TEN CENTS A MEAL

(By Barbara B. Brooks)

Marion looked up from her account books the other day, smiled and said, "I have served ninety-four meals during these past two weeks, on ten dollars and three cents. That is only a little over ten cents a meal." She was pleased with this result and had every right to be. Even experts say that it is almost impossible to secure adequate nutrition on less than ten cents per person for each meal. This young housewife did it on exactly ten cents and six mills as an average.

This young housewife did it on exactly ten cents and six mills as an average.

There will be one change in the Lone Ridge team, E. E. Sparks taking the place of T. S. Steedman.

How did Marion do this? Did some relative or friend keep a market on which she obtained a discount on her groceries? Was her husband an extremely light eater? Did she scrimp or dole out his food? Did she never have guests? The answer to all these questions is, no!

She did her shopping in an ordinary public market and she paid full price for everything. She bought in large quantities when possible and watched the sales. Perishables were bought in small amounts and only as needed, but she always had a good supply of staples on hand. When sugar was cheap, Marion bought a supply for several weeks. During the fall months, she filled the vegetable celllar with potatoes, cabbage, squash, apples and onions, preserved fruits and canned vegetables. If she could buy them at reasonable prices. She has even been known to can meats.

Her husband, like most men, has a very healthy appetite and eats plenty. She certainly does not scrimp or dole out her food. Her table is always substantially if not elaborately laden and you never leave it hungry. During the weeks in which she maintained this low average, she entertained seventeen guests. Of course, it is somewhat extravagant the average to have guests. With just two there are so many left-overs and unavoidable wasted materials.

Above all, this young woman plans her meals in advance. She anticipates how she must use up a roast, if she buys one. She knows that if she makes a cake one day that it will have to be turned into a cottage pudding several days later, and she plans accordingly. This method not only saves money, but it saves time. It eliminates last minute pondering as to what to have for a meal.

Let us see what she serves. One of her Saturday menus is as follows: Breakfast—Grapefruit (sectioned), corn flakes, toast, butter, coffee, milk.

Luncheon—Fried Eggs, Creamed potatoes, buttered peas, head lettuce, salad bread, butter, tea.

Dinner—Pork chops with baked creamed potatoes, stewed tomatoes, celery, whole wheat bread, butter, pineapple, spice cake, caffeine-free coffee.

The spice cake was made the day before and has already been served once on Friday. Several days later she served it with vanilla sauce. There was not a crumb wasted and that is as it should be. In these menus she used a half can of peas and a half can of pineapple. The following day or Sunday, the pineapple was combined with cabbage to make a salad. The other half of the can of peas was used the night before with creamed salmon.

Wise people that she is, she has discovered that two grapefruit sectioned makes six servings. Otherwise you can only make two servings and surely there is no lady who says that we must eat a half grapefruit at one sitting. One third, nicely sectioned, is just as pleasing. These prices will vary according to locality but you will find them very economical here. Even if salaries have been cut and even if your food allowance is low, remember that where there is a dime—there is a way to good meals, providing you are a wise manager.

WETASKIWIN WINS FINAL TRIANGULAR LEAGUE GAME

A deciding game in the triangular hockey league was played here Monday night, with Ponoka as the visitors. This was the final game of the schedule and the winners of the encounter are billed to play Leduc for the championship. Despite the unfavorable weather all players exerted themselves to the limit, and it was not until five minutes before the final bell that Wetaskiwin scored the winning goal. Strause of Ponoka got an easy one past Watson early in the game. The second and third periods were scoreless, and in the final stanza, the home team had slightly the better of the play. Greiner scored one minute after commencement, and later Mermer made the deciding and final counter. Final score 2-1. Wetaskiwin was handicapped as Tagtmeier, the regular goalie, was not in the lineup, but Bob Watson made a good substitute. Longman of Ponoka refereed and kept the game well in hand. The players were:

Ponoka: Kyles; Morgan, Stewart, Kroening, Larsen, Avison, R. Plant, McMillan, P. Strauss, A. Plant. Wetaskiwin: Bob Watson; Nell, J. Watson, A. Abousafy, Mermer, J. Paton, Aicher, Greiner, Farewell, Farewell.

THE BONSPIEL CURLER SPEAKS

If I should die tonight, And, as with folded arms in death I lay, Some beaten rival whom I'd put to flight Should bend above my dreamless corpse and say—"Old boy you won by greater skill and pluck, You had me trimmed all ways from back to toe; I should have been beat by six instead of three!" If he said that, Although my soul was even then a spook, I'd rise at once in my large white cravat To get one look at him—one final look; I'd make him say it over, word for word, Till I was sure that I had rightly heard; Yes, I'd rise up within my shroud, and then—I'd drop back dead again.

WEEKLY STOCK MARKET REPORT

The following is a weekly report of the Edmonton Stock Yards, as supplied to The Times for the week ending Feb. 18th:

Receipts: Cattle, 499; Calves, 74; Hogs, 2035; Sheep, 49.

Buyers so far this week have shown an indifferent attitude and are bearish in their ideas, especially on steers, in consequence trading is inclined to be slow. The market is generally druggy. Prices on cows and heifers are showing a fairly steady tone, but on steers buyers are bidding a quarter lower, and are somewhat harder in their grading. Following are the prices being quoted.

Good fed calves $4.75 to $5.25, choice would bring a shade more, mediums $4.00 to $4.50. The general run of good butcher steers $4.25 to $4.50, odd choice would bring more, mediums $3.75 to $4.00 and common to fair $2.50 to $3.00. Good handy-weight butcher heifers $4.25 to $4.50, mediums $3.75 to $4.00, good heaves $3.50 to $3.75, and common to fair $2.50 to $3.25. Bulk of good butcher cows $3.00 to $3.25, odd choice light kinds up to $3.50, common to medium $2.00 to $2.75. Canners and cutters $1.00 to $1.75. Bulls $2.00 to $2.50.

Stockers remain fairly steady with very few arrivals of this good kind. Prices remain steady with steers and heifers at $3.25 to $4.00. Stocker cows $2.00 to $2.50.

Calves are being readily cleaned up at full steady to strong prices. Choice light up to $7.00, bulk of the good kinds $5.50 to $6.50. Common to medium $4.00 to $5.00.

Hog market steady to firm. Carloads so far this week sold at $3.85 for the bacon fed and watered. Trucked in $3.75 for the bacon. Selects bringing a premium of 50c per hundred and butchers discounted 50c per hundred. Cuts on the off grade hogs remain the same. Heavies discounted 75c per hundred; extra heavies 75c; No. 1 sows 75c per hundred; No. 2 sows $1.00 per hundred; roughs 125c per hundred; Stags $2.00 per hundred.

There have been insufficient sheep receipts to make a market or establish a price. Medium to good lambs are quoted at $4.75 to $5.25. Yearlings $3.50 to $4.00 and ewes $2.50 to $3.50.

Some things are FACTS! Some things can't be denied. Some things are sure, certain and altogether sane. And here is one of those things:

the year 1932 is not going to dump any sudden wealth into your lap!

THOSE WHO MAKE MONEY from business in 1932 are going to EARN IT--not by playing a hunch, not by following tips, and not by sitting tight. To make money in 1932 YOU HAVE GOT TO SELL MERCHANDISE. And you've got to sell a lot of it. That's another fact!

Selling will NOT be easy. But the present year can be a GOOD year for you; a PROFITABLE year; a year of PROGRESS. But it's going to take some STRAIGHT-FROM-THE-SHOULDER selling!

WE'VE GOT TO HIT THE LINE HARD!! It doesn't take the seventh son of a seventh son to figure out that business is not coming without REAL effort. But there is always some business for those who have the energy and courage to GO AFTER IT! This is old stuff—but TRUE as HOLY WRIT.

More and more people are coming to regulate their shopping by the store ads. More and more people are getting out of the habit of going to "the nearest place" or the place they have usually visited for certain purchases.

More and more people are coming to decide things from reading the ads.—and depend upon the news and the facts contained in the ads, for guidance in planning purchases.

More the coming months than ever before will your advertising be the test by which all else shall stand or fall—so plan it liberally, plan it on winning lines.

The people of the extensive district in which The Times circulates cannot be as effectively or as economically reached by any other medium or method of advertising as by the columns of this paper.

The merchants of no other town in Alberta have the facilities of reaching the residents of the district they serve equal to those provided by the extensive circulation of The Times.

If you want to reach the people use The Times, the best advertising medium in the district!

USUAL DISEASES OF CHILDREN

"Nothing serious"—"Only one of the diseases that children get"—This is unfortunately, what too many parents think about the more common communicable diseases.

It is quite true that these diseases do occur chiefly among children, for the reason that children have no immunity or power of resistance against the invading disease germs. Disease among children is just as serious as when disease affects adults.

Every communicable disease is serious. Some take a heavier toll than others are more damaging in their after effects, but all are serious. The communicable diseases should be prevented when possible, avoided always, and treated seriously if they do occur.

We look forward to the time when we will be able definitely to prevent

BABY
FRETFUL, RESTLESS?

Look to this cause

When your baby fusses, tosses and seems unable to sleep restfully, look for one common cause, doctors say. Constipation. To get rid quickly of the accumulated wastes which cause restlessness and discomfort, give a cleansing dose of Castoria. Castoria, you know, is made specially for children's delicate nature. It is a pure vegetable preparation; contains no harsh drugs, no narcotics. It is so mild and gentle you can give it to a young infant to relieve colic. Yet it is as effective for older children. Castoria's regulative help will bring relaxed comfort and restful sleep to your baby. Keep a bottle on hand. Genuine Castoria always has the name:

MILLET LOCAL NEWS

Miss Helen Groves of Edgerton, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Lloyd Wolfe.

Mrs. Ben Hauser of Strome, spent last week the guest of Miss Margarette Nell and Mrs. Nell.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Phillips and Miss Annie Smith were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Von Arx on Sunday.

Mrs. H. Phillips received a telegram on Monday telling of the death of her brother-in-law, Lewis Terry, of Detroit.

Mrs. Mary Morris of Edmonton, was a guest at the home of her brother H. N. Scott, during Thursday and Friday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew McBain of Conjur Lake, were Millet visitors on Monday. They report some great drifts on the township line west.

Messrs. Chas. Moonen and E. Rosier left Sunday for Buck Lake, where they will continue hauling lumber to Winfield from the Rowley-Van Volkenburg sawmill.

It is expected that A. P. Mitchell, M.L.A., will deliver an address on the Speech from the Throne in the Legislature this week. A copy of the address will appear in next week's issue of The Times.

Mrs. Fred Pinyon has received a letter from Westington, S.D., and we are not bad off at all according to that. The crops were dried out and what there was left the grasshoppers ate. There is no feed and the stock go so thin they can't sell them. Feed shipped in is high and no money. Schools closed down on account of severe cold weather and snow drifts. This country is indeed fine compared with that.

HILLSIDE

H. G. Young attended the Pure Seed Grain Growers' convention and Seed Fair held in Calgary last week. The Junior U.F.A. are meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Dowdell next Friday evening.

The Misses Foster of Millet, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hoskins over the weekend.

A number from this district attended the Dairy Pool Convention being held in Edmonton this week.

Mr. Mather, piano tuner, of South Edmonton, was in the district last week on business.

The car seen sitting on the top of a snow drift in the early hours of last Saturday morning was two of the "Fair Youths" returning home from the dance. The boys say that you need more than a hat and a smile in 44 below zero weather, when stuck with a car.

The comedy "Three Proposals" staged by seven of the Junior U.F.A. members on Friday evening last, was well received by a fair sized audience. Each member did his part well and great credit is due their Supervisor, Mrs. Dowdell as her untiring efforts to make this comedy such a success.

There was a short program of musical numbers and readings, and a song and tap dancing by Miss Heslop, which was greatly enjoyed. Four hours dancing and a bounteous lunch served by the Juniors brought a pleasant and enjoyable evening to a close. The committee wish to thank all those who helped to make this affair such a success.

The U.F.W.A. will meet at the home of Mrs. L. W. Marr in March.

"DON'T HAVE TO MERCHANDISE DOESN'T GET VERY FAR"
The bird who says "I don't have to advertise for everyone knows who I am, where I am, and what I sell," will never make any more than a living. The average shopper does not care who a merchant is, where he is, or what he sells. But, he does care about information as to cost of what he wants without wasting steps. So, Advertise.—The Life of the Town, Bellows Falls, Vt.

ALBERT JOHNSON IS SHOT BY POLICE
Aklavik, N.W.T., Feb. 17.—Albert Johnson came to the end of his blizzard trail today. The wild man of the Arctic went down fighting but Canada's red-coated Royal Canadian Mounted Police won out.
Battling cold, hunger, blizzards and overwhelming odds, the eccentric trapper defied the police for eight weeks.
When his fate overtook him Johnson was perpetrating one of the foxiest, trail-muddling tricks with which he has managed to keep out of range of the police. He was seen by Staff Sergeant Hersey and a trapper. Hunter and hunted at once prepared for a gun battle.
The wild man drew first blood. As Hersey knelt to take aim a bullet from Johnson's rifle struck him in the knee, glanced up through his thigh and another entered his chest. Only a few shots had been exchanged when the main police party, hearing the firing, ran up. They opened fire at once and the desperado went down under a hail of lead from half a dozen rifles.

It even a few friends of The Times will only remember us from week to week in a little way, it will help amazingly to make this paper much newer and therefore that much better from the real test of a paper, the subscriber's standpoint.
Trade with the merchants who advertise in this paper.

THERE'S NO NEED FOR THAT WORRIED LOOK ON YOUR FACE!

What's bothering you? Have you a car you want to sell? Are you making fruitless search for another job? Or possibly it's the other way about... you need help? Can't you get a room in which to rest your weary bones? Perhaps the cook has left or the one you've got don't measure up to the standard?

Instead of working up a "raw meat" disposition should things go wrong, take the nearest telephone and call us up with copy for a "Classified."

Tell you what to do. Invest a few cents in a Times Classified Ad, and folks'll be "thanking you up or dropping around to see you within a few hours after we go to press.
